

About the District CA-40

- In 2020, CA-40 voted for Biden by 2%, and in 2022, for Proposition 1 to enshrine reproductive rights in the CA state constitution by 9%.
- The district's voter registration is roughly one-third Democrat, Republican, and No Party Preference/Other, with Republicans holding a shrinking share of the electorate than in 2022 (currently at +4% more Republicans vs. +6% in 2022).
- CA-40 is one of only 18 districts that voted for Biden but has a Republican incumbent and is considered a flippable seat.
- National organizations know the path to controlling the House runs through those districts and through Orange County.
- Winning the seats in CA-40 and Orange County is critical to electing a House majority that aligns more closely with the priorities of families in CA-40.
